GROW YOUR CREATIVITY, BURY YOUR STRESS.

Terrarium Therapy offers in-person and virtual plant workshops with one purpose:
to grow your creativity and bury your stress.

Enjoy a refreshing and positive experience to connect with others through nature!

At Terrarium Therapy, we understand the importance of meaningful and enriching connections. From team-building and keeping up employee morale to gathering family and friends to bond and make memories, we're bringing people together to relax and enjoy nature.

Terrarium Therapy offers in-person and online workshops for corporate, non-profit, and fundraising organizations, as well as groups of family and friends. Our online workshop packages include materials shipped directly to your door, as well as a fun and educational hour-long experience.

Flip through the following pages to see the different virtual projects we provide.

We know it may be a challenge for large parties to gather together in one physical location, especially at this time. Virtual workshops are the perfect way to team build or entertain clients and customers, all while joining us from the comfort and safety of your home. Our virtual plant workshops are enjoyable for beginners and experts alike, and create a relaxing environment.

Who Should Book?

Plant workshops are great for any occasion. We've hosted birthday parties, college alumni group functions, family reunions, corporate events, sorority events, and much more. Let us help you create a unique and memorable experience to grow your creativity and bury your stress.

How Does it Work?

Our workshop packages provide a seamless experience that easily connects everyone for a fun, hour-long event that can be accessed from anywhere, from your computer or smartphone. Project materials are shipped directly to each participant with a link to live virtual instruction. Your group gets to sit back and enjoy creating something to cherish for years to come.
